"IS THERE ANY DIFFERENCE BETWEEN CHALK AND CHEESE?"

Put it this way, I don't know of anyone who eats grilled chalk on toast. You know what I mean?
But when it comes to the Bible your taste buds have probably been destroyed!
For those who PREFER The King James Bible God kills their tastebuds and lets them eat chalk
For those who BELIEVE The King James Bible God restores their tastebuds and lets them eat cheese.

The Table below outlines the basic differences between the Two Creeds:
Those that PREFER The King James Bible and Those that BELIEVE The King James Bible.

"THE CREED OF THOSE THAT PREFER THE KING JAMES BIBLE"	"THE CREED OF THOSE THAT BELIEVE THE KING JAMES BIBLE"
1. The English King James Bible is probably the best translation, but we can alter it by adding, changing. substituting or eliminating words according to what we prefer.	1. The King James Bible is the inerrant, infallible, inspired, perfect words of God – right down to commas and full stops.
2. As God is a Spirit, his final word is in spirit form, and can therefore, only be found in heaven.	2. As God is a Spirit and he became flesh, so God's words have also become material flesh in the English King James Bible.
3. It is impossible for God to produce a final, written authority here on earth. God is only sovereign.	3. God produced the final, written authority here on earth called the King James Bible. God is Almighty.
4. As God could not preserve his 'Originals', we will rely on the bastard children of Origen's old oracles to help us out. These are to be found in Rome's Vaticanus and Sinaiticus. We especially love The New King James Version wordings of "sovereign", "YAH", "Hades" and "slaves", and furthermore, no 'unknown' tongues!	4. God couldn't care two hoots, a 'brass razoo' in Australia, about any 'Originals' – he got rid of two of them before he settled on the third! (Jeremiah 6:21-23; 51:63). So much for 'Originals'! God purposely and actively destroyed them! God hates 'the originals'!
5. As there is no final written authority on earth, peace and unity is still possible, if we can all agree on the following: "There is no inerrant, infallible, inspired and perfect scriptures to be found anywhere on earth today. There was once a pile of unseen, unread, unknown and unobtainable manuscripts, that have never been found. They are now in heaven. As there is no final written authority here on earth, we can prefer what we prefer, and you can prefer what you prefer. although we disagree, we can still have	5. Until we all can agree that there is God's final absolute, inerrant, infallible, inspired written authority on earth known as The King James Bible aka The Authorized Bible aka The Holy Scriptures aka The Holy Bible, there will be no peace and unity. Furthermore, we will not agree to disagree! As the saying goes "One man's cheese is another man's chalk"

unity by agreeing that God could not get us his final, absolute, inerrant written truth"	or is it "One man's meat is another man's poison"
