

BULLSEYE!
ACCURATE BIBLE KNOWLEDGE!
"THE FALLING AWAY" or "A FALLING AWAY"?

QUESTION: Is the correct wording a falling away (KJB) or the falling away (NKJV)?

ANSWER: "a falling away". THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS ALWAYS CORRECT

EXPLANATION:

THE AUTHORIZED BIBLE for Christians THE KING JAMES BIBLE	New King James Version (Acts 17:21) Rome's deliberate and deceitfully poisonous 'bible' translation for unsuspecting or willingly ignorant Christians
2 Thessalonians 2:3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;	2 Thessalonians 2:3 Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition,

Throughout time, there have been many 'falling aways' by God's people.

In the Book of Jude, we have a mention of falling "Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy," (Jude 1:24 King James Bible).

FALLING FROM WHAT?
 Falling away from the faith. Jude says to "...earnestly contend for the faith..." (Jud 1:3).

In the Old Testament, God's own man, Solomon, was throwing his babies into the fire and burning them to death. Would this be a falling away?

Yes. However in God's eyes this practice could be a case of "the falling away", would it not? This monstrous and abhorrent practice of sacrificing babies should be called 'the falling away' from the faith, not just another garden variety of "a falling away".

So, in these latter days, supposing we had Christian churches sacrificing babies into fires, just before the rapture, we could rightly call this time, 'the falling away', but until that time, God merely sees the plight of the modern Christian church as perhaps simply another 'falling away' – a falling away. It's almost like "Yawn! Here we go again! Another falling away! Just one of many!"

As stated, "When hasn't there never been a time of a falling away of believers?" Never. So before the rapture, God says there will simply be a falling away, not 'the falling away'. Most churches would vehemently deny they are falling away. They have substituted the increasing corruption in the world as the falling away, and indeed other churches – but not their church!

But in God's eyes the Christian church today has become so dumbed down that it is falling away – one of many.

The world has never fallen away – they have always been lost! But we do not put our own emphasis on Gods' words, by calling it the falling away.

It's as if God has had enough, and 'wearily' shakes his head as if to say "OK, time is up. Ho! Hum! Another 'falling away'! I've seen bigger and more destructive 'falling aways'. This is just another one. I've had enough!

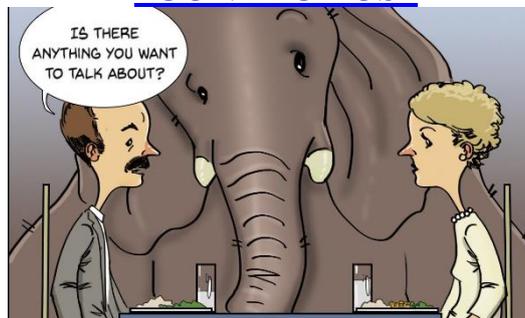

Let's get on with the programme! Right! What's next? Oh Goodo! The rapture and then the seven years of Tribulation."
